

Introduction to Root Cause Analysis

For Educational Leaders

Introduction to Root Cause Analysis

Root Cause Analysis is a powerful process that can unearth systemic inequities within our school systems.

In Introduction to Root Cause Analysis, participants will be given a high-level overview of the process of root cause analysis and suggested activities and resources to aid in the investigative process.

In this professional learning offering, participants receive an overview of:

- · System thinking concepts, with an emphasis on identifying and managing our mental models.
- . Components of a root cause analysis and resources to support a root cause analysis investigation.

Friday, March 15 Time: 9:00 am - 10:30 am

Click Here to Register

Friday, March 22 Time: 1:00 pm - 2:30 pm

Click Here to Register

Questions? Contact us at: info@systemimprovement.org